

FIRST PHOTOS OF AERO MAIL SERVICE, LONDON TO WINDSOR

LONDON, Eng.—The aeroplane mail service between London and Windsor has proved a success. Aviator Hamel carried 100,000 postal cards on his first trip, on which he landed on the grounds of Windsor Castle. A bicycle messenger took the package of mail from the aeroplane and carried it to the Windsor postoffice.

BULLETIN'S AEROPLANE CONTEST BRINGS OUT INVENTIVE LADS

It takes some event like the Bulletin's model airplane contest to show just how clever and resourceful Honolulu boys can be. The young inventors who are out to win prizes have already shown that gliders that will really glide, and model flyers which will really whirl through the air under the thrust of their twisted-rubber motors, can be made without the use of expensive fittings and materials. Model airplanes are springing up overnight like mushrooms, and every day sees something new in design and construction in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A.

Fred Carter has the record for ingenuity to date. He has made a glider out of three Japanese fans bound together in the form of a diamond. A bit of varnished newspaper for a rudder and an old key to weight the nose down, and the glider is complete.

The big games hall of the Y. M. C. A. is the scene of some interesting experiments these days. Some of the boys are willing to let their competitors see what they have accomplished, while others won't consent to an audience for their try-outs and tip-toe up to Director Loomis at odd hours of the day or night to ask for the key to the hall. Bernard Damon, Fred and Sam Carter, Stanley Mott-Smith, Will Harris and Francis Tyson Norgaard, better known as "Tyson," are among those who were trying out gliders from the balcony of the game hall last night and this morning.

The exact date of the contest will be announced some time next week, after the boys have had a chance to get together again and give the committee an idea of when their models will be ready. Here is a list of the various classes in which prizes are offered, together with a list of entries so far received. Many more entries will still be received.

"SPEEDING" DECISION IMPORTANT

Police Judge Monsarrat, before whom a large number of well-known automobilists were charged and fined for violating City and County Ordinance No. 11, regarding the speeding of automobiles in public places, gave an interesting decision yesterday morning in his courtroom.

The decision was in reference to the arrest made by Assistant Motorcycle Officer Abren of A. H. Dondero, and overruled the demurrer filed by Dondero's attorney.

Judge Monsarrat, in speaking of the ordinance, this morning said: "The gist of the decision in the case of the Territory vs. A. H. Dondero is that City and County Ordinance No. 11 is not in conflict with Sections 3115 and 3116 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii."

"The portion of the ordinance that the defendant is alleged to have violated reads as follows: 'No person shall operate a motor car on any public street in the district of Honolulu within the (there follows a description of the boundaries of said area), and at a rate of speed greater than 15 miles an hour.'"

"Section 3115 and 3116 relate to driving or riding furiously or heedlessly of the safety of others."

"The court holds that the ordinance does not conflict with the statute, nor does the statute cover the same subject and bring it within the rule in the case of the Territory vs. McCandless (the owning case)."

"So the court, holding that view, deems it unnecessary to go into the question as to whether the Legislature of the Territory has gone beyond the bounds of its legislative powers and encroached upon the judiciary by enacting and passing the act that no ordinance shall be held valid on the ground that it covers any subject or matter embraced within any statute or statutes of the Territory whether such ordinance is in conflict with any such statute or statutes or ordinance."

PROBES PURITY OF LOCAL DRUGS

Food Commissioner Edward B. Blanchard this morning completed the first of a series of tests of the drugs carried by the drug stores around Honolulu. Out of twelve samples of iodine, five were found to be below the standard, while those above are to be asked to bring the article nearer to the standard laid down in the United States pharmacopoeia.

This standard sets forth that there must be seven per cent. of iodine, and the food commissioner took this as his starting point, making it 100.

The iodine is made up here by all of the firms with the exception of the Motoshige concern, which gets its from Japan. They will now have either to bring it up to standard or else put a fresh label on the bottles, telling just what the percentage is.

The figures are as follows, results being calculated and stated in terms of the U. S. P. standard, which is rated at 100.0:

Standing and Above.	Standing.
Honolulu Drug Co.	100.4
Ishii Drug Store	101.5
Hollister Drug Co.	106.6
Hawaiian Drug Co.	108.1
Makino Drug Co.	111.6
Benson, Smith & Co. (1) ..	116.4
Benson, Smith & Co. (2) ..	128.3
Below Standard.	Standing.
Chambers Drug Co.	99.5
K. Akaboshi Drug Store	92.4
Seischo Drug Co.	43.2
Shingji Drug Store	42.6
W. Motoshige	26.0

JUDGE WAIMOA SLIPS JOKE OVER ON COURT REPORTERS

Judge L. B. Wainoa of Koolauloa in this island must be fond of a joke, judging from the one that he put over on the court reporters this morning. When they went to look over the list of cases that had been filed in the circuit court they came across an appeal of Jack Kaumana against the Territory, which emanated from the judge's court.

Anxious to find out just what the whole of the trouble was about and what could possibly have made Kaumana kick against the fine of twenty-five plunks that the judge imposed upon him they opened out the document only to find that the whole of the text was written in Hawaiian.

Away down at Koolauloa the judge must be chuckling to himself at the joke and wondering what sort of a report is likely to appear.

Capt. J. M. Bowyer, who was relieved as superintendent of the naval academy last spring, is to retire on October 14 with the rank of rear-admiral.

53 HIGHEST AWARDS IN EUROPE AND AMERICA

American-Hawaiian Making New Records.

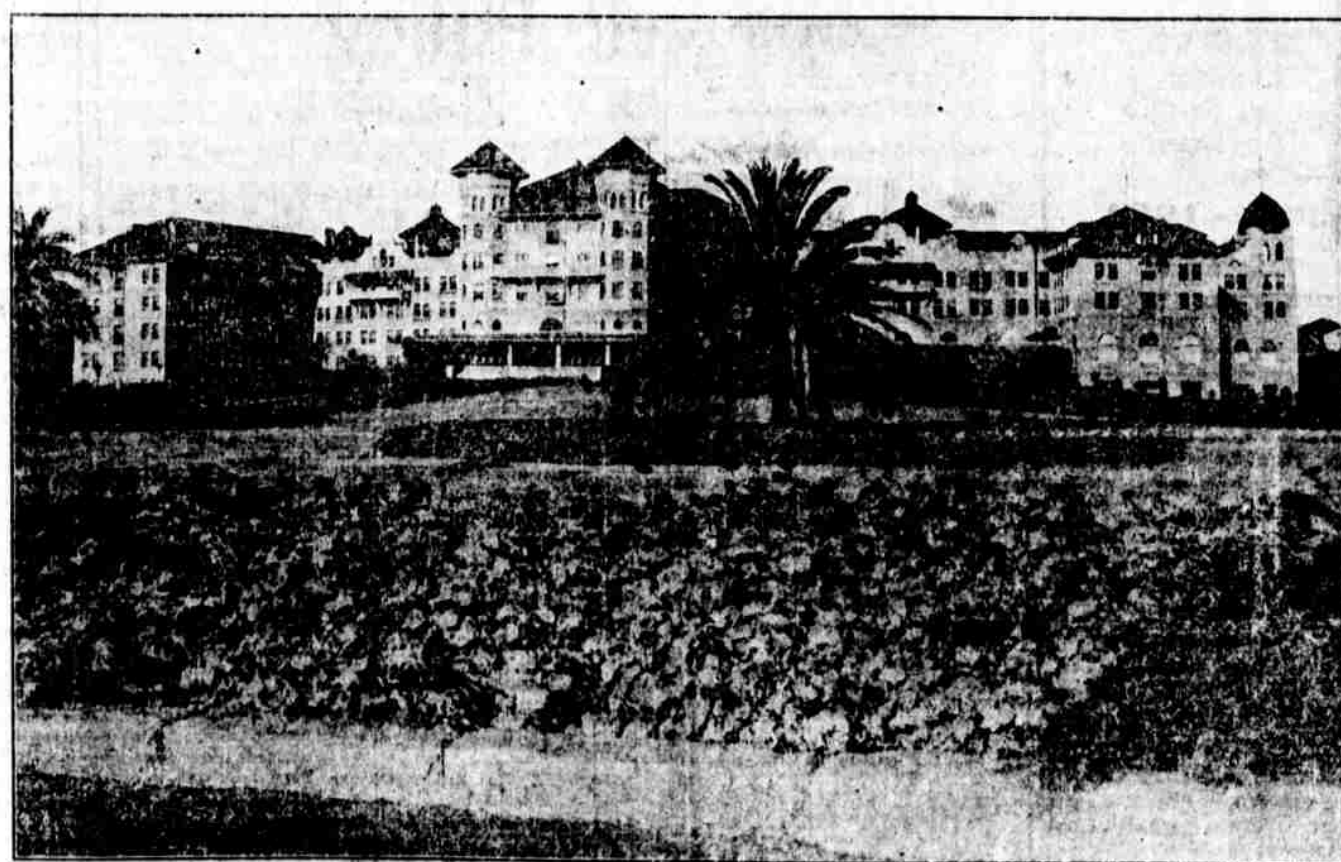

The American-Hawaiian freighter Isthmusan which is the next vessel of that line to arrive at Honolulu with general and New York cargo is credited with having participated in the movement of freight from the Pacific to the Atlantic in time never before approached by the American-Hawaiian line.

The Isthmusan's was a 7,000 ton cargo, made up entirely of domestic products, and the delivery of this enormous shipment at New York in 23 days established a record.

The company was compelled to seek accommodations in Oakland because of the failure of the harbor commissioners to provide suitable facilities on this side. Another factor in sending the company across the bay was the poor service rendered during the last few months by the state belt railroad. If the Virginian and Salatia had been loaded on this side the belt railroad would have benefited to the extent of $750 for switching charges, and the state tolls alone would have amounted to $300 on 6,000 tons loaded in Oakland by these two ships.—S.
